Lieutenant Commander Ortland at his desk.

OFFICER-IN-CHARGE NAVAL PREP SCHOOL

LCDR. HENRY ORTLAND III

Mr. Ortland graduated from the United States Naval Academy in June of 1945. He then saw several tours at sea aboard numerous types of ships including the USS COWPENS aircraft carrier in the Pacific Fleet, and the USS CLIFFROSE in the Philippine area, and the destroyer USS SANSFIELD in the Atlantic Ocean. In 1948 Mr. Ortland served as an instructor at the U. S. Naval Academy in the department of Seamanship and Navigation. His next assignment was aboard the destroyer USS RUSH in Korean waters. In 1952 Mr. Ortland was assigned to the Staff of Commander Destroyer Flotilla Four. He then returned to the Naval Academy as an instructor, this time in the department of Marine Engineering. From the Naval Academy he was ordered to the U. S. Naval War College in Newport, Rhode Island, as a student in the Command and Staff Course.

Upon completion of this course Mr. Ortland was assigned as Commanding Officer of the USS Bulwark, an ocean minesweeper. Mr. Ortland's present tour at Bainbridge began September 1958 following this command at sea.

Lt. Commander Ortland on the steps of Tome.

MR. C. L. MCGHEE
Academic Director

MR. C. L. MCGHEE

Mr. McGhee's service to his country started many years ago in 1918 when he first entered the Naval Academy. Graduating with the Class of 1922, Mr. McGhee began a long and distinguished career of service.

During World War II, from June 1941 until September 1946, Mr. McGhee instructed at the Naval Academy, preparing Midshipmen for their duties as officers in the service of their country. For the past thirteen years he has been Academic Director of the United States Naval Preparatory School.

The personal interest that Mr. McGhee has taken with each and every candidate at NPS is particularly noteworthy. His counseling and direction, which have been given to literally thousands of young Midshipman aspirants over the years, have been of invaluable assistance to them all.

MAJOR W. K. ROCKEY

Major Rockey started his military career by joining the Marine Corps in 1945. After a year he went to the Naval Academy Preparatory School, then located at Camp Perry, Virginia. Upon graduating from the Prep School, he attended the Naval Academy for four years.

After his graduation, Major Rockey attended Basic School at Quantico, Virginia. In 1951 he took command of Company "E," First Marine Regiment in Korea.

From 1952 to 1955, Major Rockey served as an instructor in the Tactics Section at Basic School, Quantico, Virginia. It was during this period that Major Rockey was promoted to First Lieutenant and Captain.

In the years 1955-1957 he was in command of the Marine Detachment aboard the USS SALEM, flagship of the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean. Transferred to the Second Marines, Second Marine Division, Camp LeJeune, North Carolina, Major Rockey served in various capacities of command until transferred to Junior School in 1959. In 1960, he was assigned as head of the algebra department here. At the beginning of 1961, he was promoted to major and assumed his present position.

"Quack, quack,
HELP, quack, quack!"

Dear Mom,
This is a picture of me and my new buddy, SK3 Lore . . .

"Sir! My swab number is; 1418729501
sir!"

"Yes, my name is Ira Hayes."

"Yes, I know how it looks, but this is what you have to put up with in a sociable section."

"Gee, no, we didn't know that this was 'Be Kind to Animals' week."

"Hold still—this Lysol seems to be getting it."

"Gee, lady, they don't usually let visitors in the asylum ward here."

"one, two, three, two, two, three, four, . . . !"

"But I am holding field day—on my insides."

Smith; "Look, Foss, either I get a good hand or you've had it!"

"But, Mercer, I thought they were roaches!"

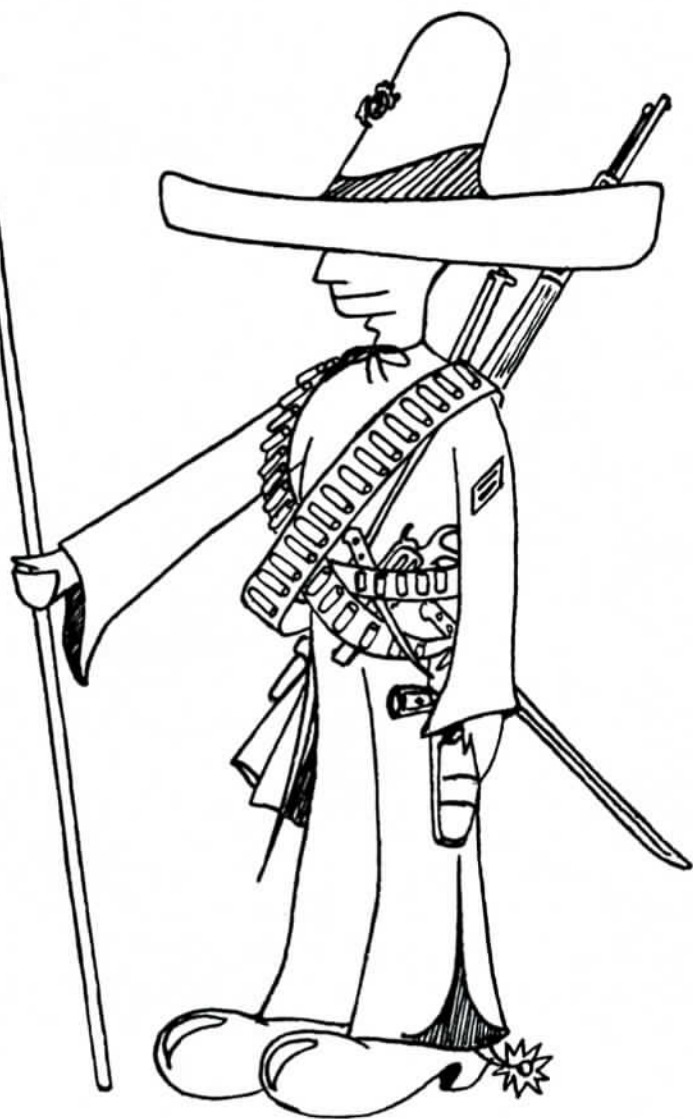

"What! Us steal signs?"

"If T.K. Foss can get his locker clean, so can you."

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

L. to R.: Stoll, Gadberry, Ens. Snyder, Headburg, Dines.

THE PRINT CLUB

"I keep telling you, the p's go here and the t's go there, opherwise, we can't trimp right!"

"Yep, that's just what happened to Gutenberg when he used this press."

Mrs. Levis and Ruth help the Social Committee clean cups as there was a small budget for the Christmas Dance.

Mr. Levis in one of his rare moments of self-control.

THE SOCIAL COMMITTEE

FRONT ROW: Grunert, Lt. (jg) Levis, Lt. (jg) Grady, Ens. Goldsmith. SECOND ROW: Coleman, Nelson, Vaughn. THIRD ROW: Smith, LeBrun, Richardson. FOURTH ROW: Morwick, McGraw.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

. . . with some of the year's outstanding and award-winning pictures.

L. to R.: Herbage, D. W., Belanger, J. P., Forbes, G. S., Franks, W. B., Dusseault, B. A., Tegler, L. J., Maj. Rocky.

The school photographers have made many long, perilous journeys, such as here among the wild natives, in search of pictures for the CRUISE.

It took a big bribe, but we did it!

"It's even more fun when I take pictures of the underside."

"Ummmm—yes, baby, Yes!"

"No, that one won't sell quite as well as the third one on the other roll."

THE CRUISE

Mr. Nehmer gives Hauptfuhrer the gouge on sales techniques.

EDITORIAL STAFF

L. to R., SEATED: Silloway, R. F., Jameson, C. P., Behl, B. C.
STANDING: Herbage, D. W., Mattis, D. W., Ens. Mavridis, Franks, W. B., Lt. (jg) Atkinson.

"First you write a memorandum on my tie, then you steal my bubble soap, . . ."

Hauptfuhrer finally practices his new sales technique.

THE

Mr. Weinfurter smiles as he thinks of how the glee club will be here for practice, and Mr. Peple — ". . . As she undid her buttons, . . ."

GLEE

"Ah one, ah two, — let's have some bubble music!"

An ardent music lover is captivated by Tegler's brilliant (?) keyboard work and his enchanting (?) voice.

CLUB

Sucking one's finger improves the voice, or so it seems.

"We got our guidon, we got our guidon!"

Mattis (hand on head): "You mean we have to climb that thing?"

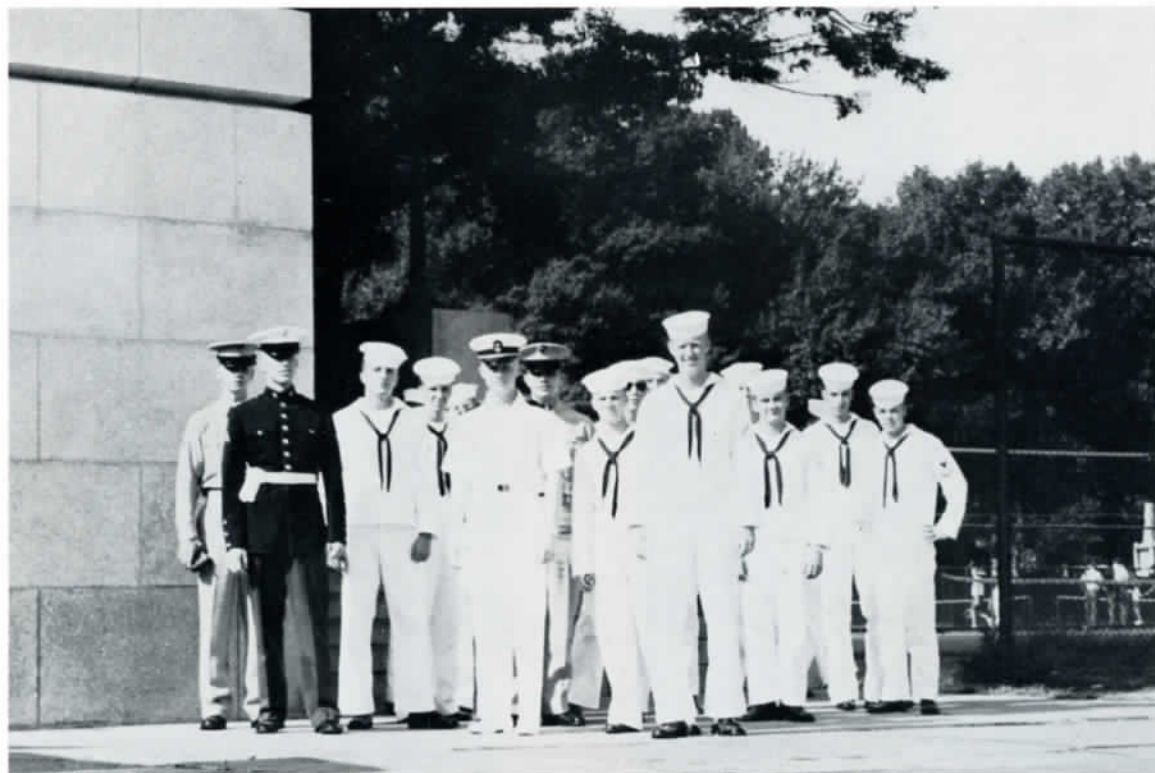

Middies strolling (?) back from class.

P.F.C. Vega: "Where's the First Sergeant's office?"

Tomb of John Paul Jones.

Silloway: "You people WILL stand by when I take over this place next year."

"No, madam, I'm afraid there is no Smedley Hotchkiss III here for a Class of '41 reunion."

PARENTS DAY 1961

"Frankly, if you gave him a good spanking, it might help matters a lot."

"Capt. Rhymes, Mr. and Mrs. G."; "Mr. and Mrs. Z., Mrs. Rhymes"; "How do you do, Mr. Q., my . . ."

"... of course, your son's orismology has fallen into diseuitude, thus exuvirating all vestiges of ..."

"I don't care if it is mess hall chow, I want some."

"I hear that the food here is pretty good."

"Yeah; the food is so good it gives me heartburn."

"Mommy, what's heartburn?"

"Only heartburn?"

"This is where I have the bottle—for the cure of heartburn, of course."

"Son, where did he say that bottle was?"

"How did you spell that, sir?" "H-O-T-C-H-K-I-S-S, Smedly III."

"Mommy, what does H-O-T-C-H-K-I-S-S spell?"

STANDING, L. to R.: Knapp, Lanning, Kime, McGrath, Knight, Lister, McGraw. SEATED: Walker.

DANCE BAND

"Maybe if they like our playing we will get something to eat."

McCague and Walker are blowing beautiful songs of disgordge in Knight's direction.

COACH CECIL R. PERKINS

Hubbard carries the ball against West Point's defensive lineup.

FOOTBALL

Left to Right, FIRST ROW: Borrelli, Dennis, Hockenbury, McGrath, McNeil, Lore, Helmsin, Hartnett, Angel, Rogers. SECOND ROW: Sippen, Biancone, Strachan, Ragland, Eichorst, Oates, Sanders, PreFontaine, Bowe, Holly, Lopez. THIRD ROW: Stirrat, Pribish, Marrone, Zvacek, Hubbard, Titus, Overton, Watson, Corter, Mullins. FOURTH ROW: Glotzbach, Balter, Eubanks, Kowalick, Veliquette, Ellison, Svalya, McKeehan, Jacobs, Cotten, Metro, Fieldus. BACK ROW: Sadd, McCool, Jameson, Coach Richie, Coach Nehmer, Manager Strinner, Trainer Clark, Manager Giedzinski.

In the third game of the season the NPSTERS smash a Naval Academy back for a good loss of yardage.

Borrelli rambles for some yardage around right end against Stephens Trade as Geis comes up to throw a block for him.

Hockenberry races to the goal line for more points against Millersville State.

Borrelli on an end sweep picks up a couple of yards against Stephens Trade.

Biacone gets set to tackle a VMI runner as Zvacek comes up hard from the rear to assist.

The Newport News line rushes in to block a punt by Holly.

A VMI back tries to make yardage against NPS.

Hubbard races away from two Columbia Prep backs as he goes for about ten yards.

Stirrat looks around for a little running room against Columbia Prep.

Angel makes a dash around right end for some needed yardage against Millersville State.

Lore and Prefontaine stop a Stephens Trade back as he tries for a touchdown.

Angel on the option goes for more yardage against Columbia Prep as McNeil tries to knock off some of the opposition.

Velliquette spins away from one of the Columbia Prep backs as two of the opposing team's linemen prepare to tackle him.

Biacone races around left end for five yards against Millersville State.

Biacone goes for two yards and a touchdown against Columbia Prep.

BASKETBALL

Zvacek goes up for the rebound in a heated afternoon practice session.

Law gets set to take the rebound off the backboard after posing for this picture.

A long shot taken from the key during practice.

Newport News again—those guys surely were stubborn.

Everybody worked overtime at practice.

The practice paid off though, . . .

. . . for nobody let up for a minute.

Hoopmen Steidle and Lopez watch Overton practice layup shots during a typical afternoon practice session.

Lopez practices ball handling while Bowe tries to intercept.

Law and Steidle warm up for shooting practice.

Steidle waits for Lopez's rebound.

Play-maker Steidle tries to out-fox Law in practice.

Big Hoek out-jumps Steidle for shot at the basket.

Overton gets set to tangle with team mates for the rebound.

Jump shot away!

We always had a good turnout.

NAPS, in white, scores again.

Remember the sign, fellas?

Both teams were stepping high this night.

MAPS vs. NAPS—a good contest with NAPS coming out victorious.

Newport News tries vainly to block a shot.

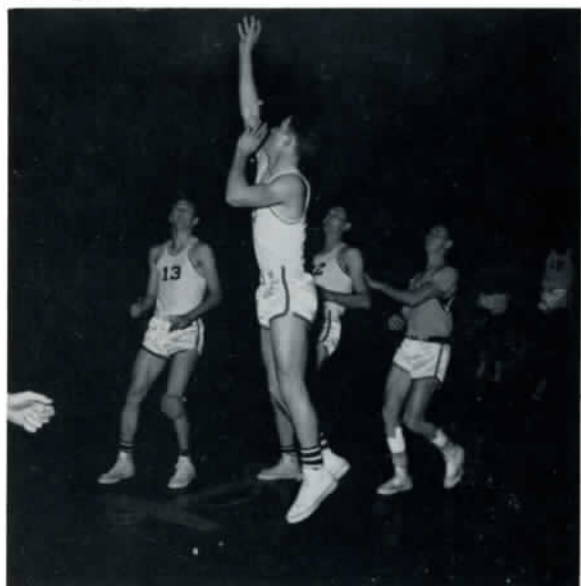

"Who says I can't read?"

Two more for the NAPS squad.

Newport News just couldn't seem to get off the ground.

"Is there a ball in this game?"

COACH: Captain J. R. Curnutt

I don't care what you say, my legs are not skinny!

CROSS COUNTRY

FRONT ROW: McBride, Maher, Donaldson, Spooner. SECOND ROW: Nelson, Light, MacDonald, Shaw. THIRD ROW: Holler, Enders, Schnibbe. REAR: Godwin.

One step down, 5279 more to go.

Follow the leader.

If I win, I hope that I'll be able to keep my emotions down.

"Recon, recon. All the way! All the way!"

"I'd better catch him, or else I'll flunk physics."

"I made it, I finally reached the finish line."

"Maybe if I take a shower, I'll get to run with the rest of the fellows."

"OH, NO! I've got a rock in my shoe."

L. to R., FRONT ROW: Kish, Hoffman, Wily, Prefontaine, Schnitzspahn, Corter, Wright. SECOND ROW: Lt (jg) Stuckey, Hartnett, McGrady, Balter, Helmsin, Johnson, Taylor, Jacobs, Sadd, McPheteridge, Capt. Stokes.

WRESTLING

Schnitzspahn tries to get out of Corter's pin attempt.

Wily successfully pins Kish to end the practice match.

"Now do I gouge his eyes out, coach?"

Balter tries to pin an opponent in a practice match.

"Why don't you let me pin you so I can look in front of the coach."

"Ahggg!!!"

"Let's rest a minute, I'm beat."

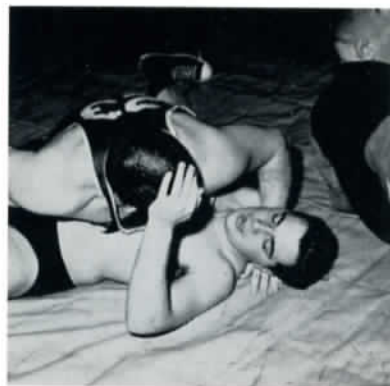

But I thought this was a hammerlock!

Only when I laugh.

I said they're not touching!

Let's check the book.

No! Not the Pretzel!

This is where we came in.

"When I push, you push."

"You pulled!"

An elementary hold.

"Hey!! That tickles!"

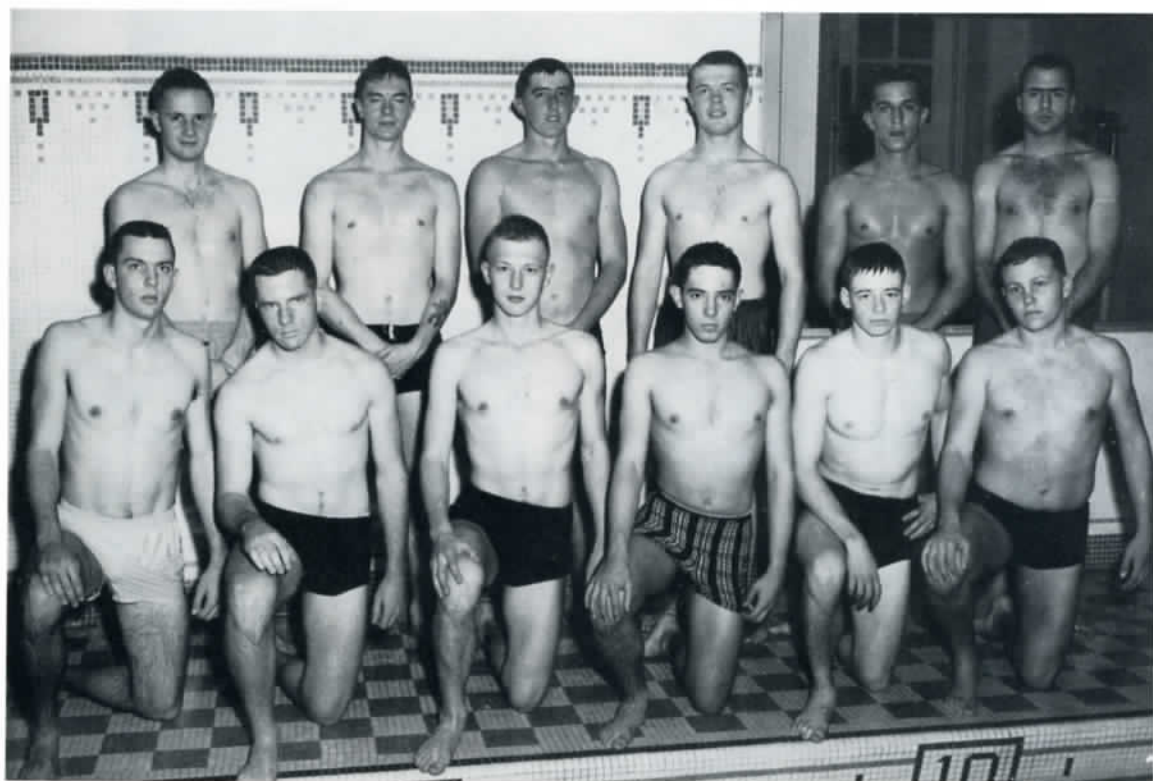

"O.K. Mac, you can take her out."

The next relay is ready to go in this close race.

SWIMMING

L. to R.: BOTTOM ROW: Beauchamp, Denbo, Finefrock, Edmunds, Morris, Stirrat. SECOND ROW: Ens. Pearson, Verbeck, Lewis, Bruechert, Sprandel, Ens. Powell, Coach.

Beauchamp bounces up . . .

then flips over . . .

and down to finish another one of those many practice dives.

Morse sprints in for the finish another heat.

"All right, where's the water?"

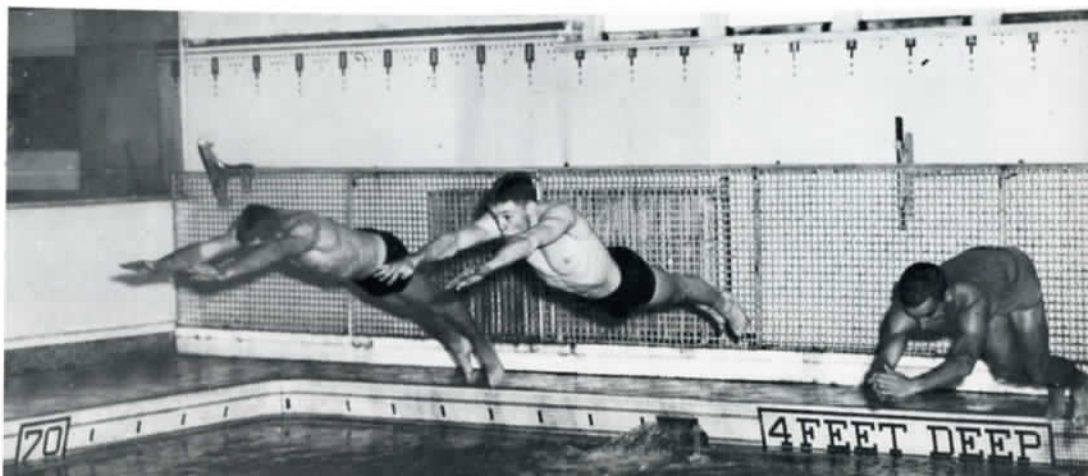

"Somebody kick my feet loose!"

"Okay, I see it!"

L. to R.: Lewis, Morris, and Sprandel demonstrate their technique for the camera.

Observe the look of intense concentration on the right, and the look of sheer terror on the left.

Actually, it's very easy.
I mean, really. I mean—

Elementary frontstroke.

Elementary air gulping.

Due to the lateness of the season, we were unable to obtain a formal group photograph. However, we managed to sneak in a shot of the team during a recent practice session, a shot which reveals the co-ordination and good spirit which prevails at all times.

LACROSSE

This is just like scooping up fish, only a little rougher.

Hey! I'm a Corporal, remember? Aw, fellas, have a heart!

We lose more guys this way.

LaCrosse; a scientific, systematic sport.

"Relax, fellas, it's dead."

Sale demonstrates his, er . . . uhm . . . ability.

This is good for chow formations.

TRACK

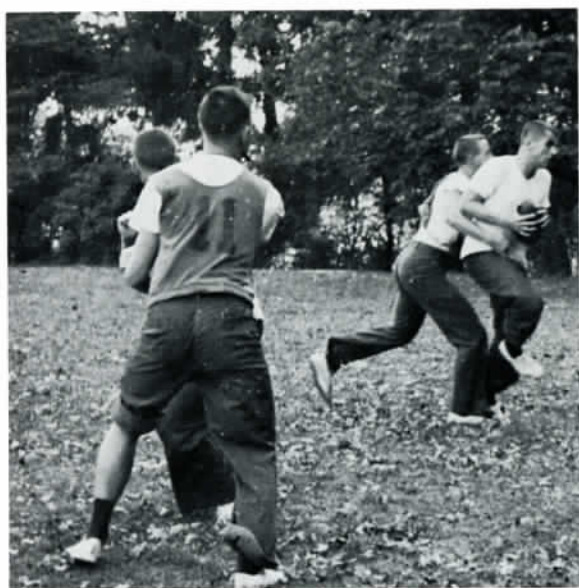

"Now where did I put my glasses?"

There is nothing like a brisk stroll in the country.

Even Cross Country had a place in the intramural schedule.

They tell us that this is "touch" football.

INTRAMURALS

Of course, Basketball found its way into the system too.

They sure look silly when it hit the ground.

"You did say liberty call, didn't you?"

An excellent example of uniformity of uniform.

Actually,
he's out
of bounds.

As you can see, our boys really work!

Not bad, not bad at all.

Catching or throwing?

Everybody loves to play.

He landed flat on his face, five seconds after this shot was taken.

Burke—showing off for the camera.

All Bowling and Basketball team standings are based on records to the second week of February.

The men of the NPS Class of 1962 take this opportunity to say thank you to those whose names appear on these pages. Without the generous support of parents, relatives, friends of the student body, and local businessmen, this 1962 CRUISE could never have been published.

The CRUISE is a private publication of the students of NPS, under the guidance of faculty advisors.
